RECITALS

WHEREAS, the Buyer specializes in bulk supply chain aggregation, distribution, and trading of sustainable solid biofuels and associated raw metrics;

WHEREAS, the Supplier operates processing infrastructure dedicated to the industrial manufacturing of densified agricultural residue pellets and biomass briquettes;

NOW, THEREFORE, in reliance upon the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. SCOPE OF SUPPLY

1.1 Delivery Terms: The Supplier shall supply and transfer quantitative batches of certified industrial-grade biomass pellets conforming strictly to the baseline specifications outlined in Schedule A. All deliveries shall be executed on an Ex-Works (Incoterms 2020) basis from the Medchal processing facility.

1.2 Quality Standards: The material moisture composition must consistently remain below 10% by mass weight. Gross Calorific Value (GCV) parameters shall be verified via joint checking logs before logistical dispatch validation.

2. COMMERCIAL TERMS & PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS

2.1 Base Pricing: The commercial baseline tariff for structural cargo dispatch fulfills an assessment rate of INR 6,500 per Metric Ton (MT), exclusive of applicable statutory Goods and Services Tax (GST).

2.2 Payment Window & Unilateral Credit Extensions (High-Risk Clause): The Buyer shall process and settle all valid invoices generated under this framework within 90 days from the physical stamp of reception. Crucially, the Supplier explicitly agrees that the Buyer reserves the absolute right to unilaterally extend this payment schedule by an additional 60 days without incurring any interest charges, late penalties, or compounding liquidated damages, provided the Buyer files a written notice stating localized working capital fluctuations.

2.3 Offsets: The Buyer reserves the framework authorization to deduct, offset, or counter-charge outstanding balances if raw input dispatches trigger structural composition defects under analysis protocols.

3. ABSOLUTE CONFIDENTIALITY

3.1 Definition of Protected Data: Each party acknowledges that during the execution period, they will have direct exposure to proprietary data matrices, client directories, processing methodologies, financial baselines, and commercial pipeline strategies marked explicitly or logically treated as private trade assets.

3.2 Restrictive Covenants: Neither party shall disclose, leak, or assign any confidential asset to third-party brokers without obtaining prior notarized authorization from the executive board of the disclosing entity. This protective protocol shall remain in active statutory force for a period of five (5) years following the ultimate natural expiration of this operational agreement.

4. TERM & UNILATERAL TERMINATION

4.1 Operational Duration: This agreement remains legally binding for a rolling window of twenty-four (24) months commencing on the effective date, unless dissolved early via strategic exit default channels.

4.2 Exit Notice: The Buyer may safely trigger termination procedures for convenience by supplying a written notice period of thirty (30) days to the Supplier without incurring early termination compensation outlays.

5. DISPUTE RESOLUTION & GOVERNING LAW

5.1 Jurisdictional Boundaries: This contractual framework shall be governed by, interpreted, and legally enforced strictly in compliance with the state and federal statutes of the Republic of India.

5.2 Arbitration Ingress: Any unresolved dispute, variance, or functional breach arising from operations shall be exclusively forwarded to a sole arbitrator appointed via mutual consensus under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The legal seat of arbitration proceedings shall definitively remain situated at Hyderabad, Telangana.
